NOTICE TO CONSIGNEES.

PUBLIC AUCTION.</

ter at the Central School, and charged with assaulting him on the 3rd instant. Evidence having been adduced, the Warden bound the officer in his own recognisance in the sum of $10 to keep the peace.

LARGENCY.

Kwok Ahn, coolie, was convicted of stealing 4 lbs. of nails, value fifty cents, the property of the Dock Company, on the 10th instant, and was given seven days' hard labour.

Chung Pat, coolie, was charged with stealing 27 lbs. of meat, value 75 cents, the property of the 58th Regiment, on the 10th instant, and Private Gao, Brown, of the 58th Regiment, stated that on the 10th instant he saw defendant with 7 lbs. of beef under his jacket. Defendant was second cook. When he saw witness he dropped the beef and ran. The beef was the property of the C. Company, and was worth $100.

Defendant denied the charge, and was sentenced to three months hard labour.

PERSONALIZING AN EXCISE OFFICER.

Maxim Machado, boarding-house runner, was brought up, on remand, on a charge of personalizing himself as an excise officer on the 10th instant. After all, the steamer Lai Hing and Tak Li said that on the 9th instant, at 9 a.m., he was a defendant standing on the Canton wharf and said that he was searching for opium. Witness had seen him doing that every night for the last two or three months. He produced a paper written in English, but what it said witness did not know.

Mr. J. S. Spee, chief excise officer, said that defendant was not an excise officer; he had never been one, and was not authorized to search passengers.

Defendant said that he was a boarding-house runner in the Nan Chong Lin boarding house. It was his duty to get boarders to the house. He had never searched for opium. The man charged him because he being a Portuguese the constables cannot turn him off the wharf and therefore the boarding house people engaged him in preference.

The CHAIRMAN, in reply to Mr. Joseph's question, restated that he had no objection to the constables coming on board, and pointed on the back of each defendant and on the back of each defendant that the rate of interest was to be paid to the Directors.

Proposed by the CHAIRMAN, and seconded by Mr. Francis.—"That the Report and Accounts be presented as passed."

Proposed by Mr. Winstler and seconded by Mr. SYLVA.—"That the appointment of Mr. Francis as a Director of the Company be confirmed."
